"My Aikido path started out of simple curiosity, and first time I stepped on the mat was in 2003, at age of 18, in my hometown, Split, in Croatia under the guidance of Ivan Matesic. From there my practice continued to be an important part of my life, and I had pleasure to be supported by various teachers and traditions (Yoshinkan, Iwama, Real Aikido, Krav Maga). In 2007 I met Patrick Cassidy Sensei (6th Dan Aikikai), and spent 3 years as an uchideshi under his guidance (2013-2017) deepening my understanding of Aikido, as well as yoga and meditation, and attaining the rank of Nidan. This time profoundly affected me, being both the biggest challenge and a greatest gift, and gave me an opportunity to meet people and teachers from all over the world, all of who helped me become who I am today, as a teacher and a human being."
